

WHERE ARE YOU STANDING?

If you were white in Africa you were a targeted person. If you were white local people think you may have money or you have something that is worth taking away. It is not politics that make black people turn against whites. They don't hate whites... We whites have caused all the problems for the blacks, we whites pushed them back to live at the level of animals and we whites destroyed their brains and converted them into instinct-beings...Why are we complaining if they kick us down for a simple mobile phone? Don't be angry of them but be angry of yourself and of those who are even transgressing these limits...

I have nothing to lose here in Africa. I can be killed at any time though they have tried it several times. My car is full of bullet holes and I was a target of hijack attempts too... but I am not angry of them. They did just what any animal does in the savanna...though they have reached this stage...they are just hunting for their daily meal. Don't laugh...it is matter of time and you will do the same.

Even if one day I'll be hit I will not take my wrath and my thoughts to the hereafter about those big carnivorous who are more cruel than the simple animals...who kill much more than they need to eat...These are you dear rulers of the new world. You will not deceive me any more. I already know why are simple people committing murders and why they are dying millions here and there. I already know how the satanic machinery works on stories which introduce you as the rescuers of humanity while prohibiting any other opinion to enter to the scene...You have already globalised wealth on one side and poverty on the other...However this will be your disastrous end...You will be unable to raise such strong walls between us and yourself that will prevent us from visiting you one day...Then we shall see how you live by spending the resources and commodities that you robbed from the world.. You need the treasures and minerals from Africa. You need the oil of the Arabs. You need even the power of God...and you want all this free of charge while making people poor and homeless in their own land. Why are you worried if they try to defend themselves and whatsoever belongs to them? Why are you worried if they are ready to sacrifice themselves though there is nothing more left to lose? No...not they are the terrorists but you dear rulers of the new world. Even God has turned against you. Hurricanes are sweeping away your cities and the raising level of seas will wash away your countries...Or do we cause even this? Is even this coming from our mud-huts? Don't worry...we shall survive. We shall survive the poverty and the epidemics and the cruelty of dictators but you can't survive even a simple electric blackout for 2 hours...

No let's speak about the facts again. You are not generating these processes without reason. History is always repeating itself. We all remember how the discovery of the American continent happened. We all remember that those poor native red Indians considered you as their goddesses when you entered the game...You played the role of the goddesses and instead of introducing yourself as a goodness of mercy you were cruel. In your holy pictures, Jesus and Mary are whites like you! Have you forgotten those shipments of gold and other goods that entered Europe those days? Have you forgotten the way you obtained them? And now you teach it at the schools as discovery of America. Was it discovery or something else? Have you forgotten the slave markets and the slave breeding projects? Are you in a position today to shape any opinion about human rights? Are you the one who condemn the Nazi theory of races while you introduced it?

See...you are doing the same today. You are creating people and situations that you will condemn later. Like Ben Laden or Qa'ada...You are simplifying local cultures and traditions that are still important to local people. For you nothing is respectable...no religions no God...only money and power. You are creating jokes from ancient mythologies and Holy Books. One day we shall see Jesus as a Karate champion in your movies...then how we can explain to our children and to the next generations who Jesus was? And gradually everything will lose its importance...no faith and no conviction and no local thinking...only clones...your clones that behave as you wish.

We also can see that you can't overcome everywhere...There are people on this Globe who are fighting for their heritage or faith...You don't understand why they are doing it...Of course you don't because you don't have the same...

We can also see that God is sending on you natural disasters...Hurricanes and floods and extreme temperatures...We also can see that in some parts of the world you are facing security problems...so some of you are looking for new homes in this Globe. You are looking for rich places where the climate is still fine where you can dominate...and you start again...You introduce yourself as new goodness and destroy anything that belongs to the local heritage. You enter East Europe and Africa and Asia the same way you did to America...You are using more sophisticated methods like monetary systems and information technology and a developed army, but the theory is the same. Epidemics, dead corps and destruction. Fake prophets are everywhere who propagate thoughts that make your advent acceptable... Fake apostles teach local blacks how to get rid of AIDS. They are the ones who suggest for AIDS patients to establish sexual relation with small children of 1-2 year of age. These apostles are coming from your "humanitarian" institutes..

You have started to create your clones again and this is the time that we humans, the creation of God are waiting for. We humans are white and black and yellow but are not your clones. We have got already our God and we know exactly whom to follow. We humans need globalization too...but not that one where you are the God. We need a globalization that is based on the principles of our God... where we all find our place and share in this world according to His order. We humans know why are you creating enemies for mankind like Ben Laden or Qa'ada...They are your arguments to isolate nations and cultures from the processes and your circle is getting smaller. We know why you are giving fake information and communication to the world about countries like Iran, or Syria, Lebanon, Palestine, Venezuela and almost the whole of the African continent in order to make mankind scared of them. But take care simple man. If you are not aware of what is going on today, tomorrow you will be targeted. If you just try to protest why Jesus is a karate hero on the screen...you will be a terrorist.

We humans are aware of what you want and we know history too. God always rescues those who are on His side and destroys those who are against Him. This is the time of Firquan (Criterion). This is the time to take decision on which side are you standing. Are you on the side of Abel or Kain, Noah or his folk, Hud or A'ad, Salih or Thamud, Shu'eyib or Median, Abraham or Nimrod, Moses or the pharao, Jesus or Herod, Mohammed (PBUH) or Qureish, on the side of the rulers of the God-fearing humbled creatures or on the side of the rulers of the globalised monetary system which is monitored by their clones?
